DEAL WITH THE JAWAS

Buying droids from the Jawas is a difficult deal for Luke Skywalker to make, but he'll get a discount if he solves this puzzle. Can you help him? Complete the grid by writing the correct droid letters in the empty spaces. Note, each droid must only appear once in any row or column.

How many Jawas are there in total?
Add the number in the box.

BROKEN HOLOGRAM

R2-D2 is projecting an important message from Princess Leia, but there's something wrong with the hologram. Fix it by matching the correct pieces to the empty spots in the picture.

TIME TO RELAX

GREEDO'S DICE

When they're not busy working, bounty hunters love rolling dice. Look at the dice on the table and help Boba Fett work out which one Greedo is thinking about. Do it quickly, because Fett hates losing!

NASTY SURPRISE

Han Solo and Chewbacca look quite shocked by the holo-message projected by the droid. Chewie even dropped his dinner and that doesn't happen very often! Find out who's calling them by colouring in the picture using the number key opposite. When you have finished, count all the tomato slices that Chewbacca has dropped.

TRACKS IN THE SNOW

It's very easy to get lost in a blizzard on planet Hoth. That's why you should always keep your friends in sight. Poor C-3PO has been left behind. Guide the droid through the blizzard, following the arrows to take him to his friends before the fresh snow covers all the tracks. Then, count up all the snowmen.

LET'S PLAY!

Darth Sidious and Darth Vader are training their villainous minds but they're stuck on this puzzle. Help them finish it by drawing TIE fighters in the correct boxes. But watch out: each row and column must contain the same number of TIE fighters as indicated by the numbers.

DANGER ON THE RADAR

Leia and Luke have discovered some Imperial troops heading right to the secret rebel Echo Base! Help them locate the hostile visitors hiding amongst rebel squads. Look at the radar and circle two identical formations – they are the Imperial spies! Once you have found them, count up all the squads you can see on the radar screen.

CHILLING RIDDLE

If your secret base is located on an icy planet like Hoth, it's best not to forget the entry code! Help this rebel unlock the door before R2-D2's circuits freeze completely! Look at the key panel and find the same sequence of symbols shown horizontally in the grid.

BEEP! BOOP! EEEP!

YES, I KNOW IT'S FREEZING, ARTOO.
YOU SHOULD BE THANKFUL
I'VE LENT YOU MY SCARF!

LOOK OUT, VADER!

Attention, the Imperial troops are on the horizon! But the rebels are well prepared – they're going to bombard them with snowballs! Follow the snowball tracks and count those that are going to hit Darth Vader. Write the number in the empty box. When you've done that, try to find the lightsaber that Luke's lost in the snow.

JEDI MEDITATION

Every Jedi-in-training has to work hard, but they must also clear their minds to gain focus. Young Luke finds it difficult to meditate when all he can think of is the dreadful ... Connect the dots to find out who's haunting his thoughts. Then, draw lines to match up the pairs of levitating bricks.

OOPS, A VIRUS!

It seems that the Death Star's Super Laser Operating System has been infected! Help the Imperial Officer and the Death Star Gunner find the virus in the source code. CLUES: the virus's code is an unbroken chain of the same coloured symbols, leading from the first to the last row of the grid. The symbols are linked horizontally, vertically and diagonally.

DROID DISASTER!

C-3PO is rather good at getting himself into trouble. This time, he's stumbled upon a team of stormtroopers, and now he's in a real mess. Can you help Chewbacca put the droid back together? Write the numbers in the correct places.

BEST PROTECTION

AS THE REBEL FORCES CONTINUE TO STRIKE THE EMPIRE, THE GALAXY FILLS UP WITH MORE AND MORE SPACE TRASH. IT'S GOOD NEWS FOR THE FREEMAKER FAMILY ...

HEY, ZANDER!
LOOK OVER THERE!

A STAR DESTROYER!
IT'S GOT A FEW HOLES IN THE HULL, BUT OTHER THAN THAT IT'S A GREAT FIND!

AND WE FOUND IT
FIRST! LET'S CHECK
IT OUT. IT LOOKS
TOTALLY ABANDONED.

I HOPE YOU'RE RIGHT,
LITTLE BROTHER ...

THIS SHIP'S A REAL TREASURE! WE SHOULD LOOK AROUND.

LET'S GO
TO THE COMMAND BRIDGE. MAYBE
THE SHIP'S SHIELDING CAPACITATOR
COUPLINGS ARE STILL INTACT?

OH, MY!

IT'S A GIANT STATUE!
BUT WHY WOULD
THEY ...? I MEAN,
WHAT FOR ...?

YEAH, I AGREE. IT'S GROSS! BUT WE CAN DISMANTLE IT AND ...

NO! WE'RE NOT EVEN GOING TO TAKE ONE BRICK OFF IT!
WE'LL HAVE IT JUST AS IT IS!

BUT WHY?

I HAVE AN IDEA THAT MIGHT PROTECT REBEL SHIPS EVEN BETTER THAN THE STAR
DESTROYER'S SHIELDING
CAPACITATOR COUPLINGS!

OH, MY!
WHAT'S THAT?!

A NEW PROTECTION
SYSTEM. I BET IMPERIAL PILOTS WON'T DARE SHOOT
AT THIS SHIP NOW!

BUSINESS AS USUAL

If you see the StarScavenger zooming through space, it means the Freemakers are on another scavenging mission. Look closely at the picture and match the missing pieces to the blank spaces on the starship, by writing the correct numbers in them. Be careful: one piece doesn't fit anywhere.

TREASURE IN THE TRASH

The Freemakers have received a special order. If they want to make a good profit from it, they need to search through the space junk to find the parts in the box. Help Kordi locate the parts floating in space, then write down how many of each of them you can find.

NEW DROID

Roger, the Freemaker family's trusted butler, is overloaded with work. Rowan promised to design a droid to help him do the household chores. Draw over the lines to help Rowan finish designing a new multitasking droid for Roger.

SPARE PARTS

Kordi Freemaker is upset! Her brother, Zander, forgot to tell her which starship he was planning to repair first. Now she has to guess – unless you help her. Look at the pile of spare parts and mark the starship that can be fixed with them.

CABLE MESS

How many stormtroopers do you need to power up an AT-ST walker? Way too many! And they still can't handle it without help. Look at the connection scheme in the box below and mark the three cables that are plugged into the wrong places on the walker. When you have fixed the cables, find a rebel spy hidden in the forest.

FOREST RACE

What can you do with abandoned Imperial speeder bikes? Han Solo has the answer – speeder bike races! Find out if you can beat the times of the galactic smuggler and his furry pal, Chewbacca! Put the tip of a pencil on the arrow at the start and draw a line along the track as fast as you can, without touching the sides of the track or taking the pencil off the page. Write your name and time in the empty boxes. Then count all the Ewoks.

THE ONE AND ONLY BB-8

The Millennium Falcon is ready for a mission to find Luke Skywalker on planet Ahch-To. Chewbacca and Rey are just waiting for their little friend, BB-8, to get on board. But which of these droids is the real BB-8? Compare them with the holo-picture, then tick the correct box.

THE BB-8 DROID
AND THE FORCE

IN THE DARK

All X-wing fighters look the same in the darkness of night. Look at the picture of Poe Dameron's starship and find the matching one among the four X-wings parked on this dark planet. Circle it. Too easy? Then try to find BB-8 hiding in the desert as well!

DANGEROUS ROUTE

Every pilot knows that a jump into hyperspace is a dangerous manoeuvre – especially if there's an asteroid field on your route! Han Solo is a very experienced pilot, but he might need your help this time. Guide the Millennium Falcon through the space rocks and into the safe zone. Then count the Imperial TIE fighters hiding in the asteroid field.

THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT KYLO REN

KYLO REN WAS ALWAYS PROUD OF HIS AFFINITY TO THE DARK SIDE ...

WHEN I WAS A BABY I BIT MY DAD IF HE TRIED TO FEED ME! HA!

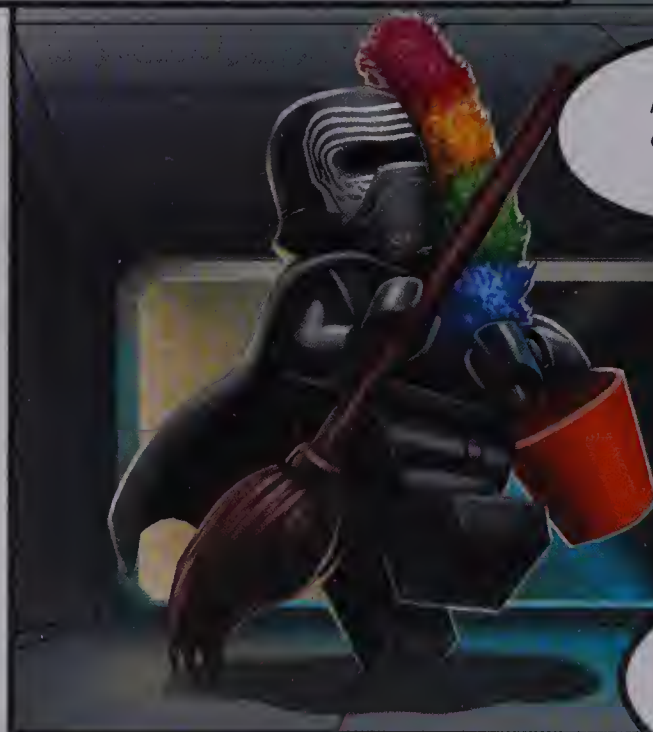

HE ALWAYS LOOKED UP TO HIS GRANDPA VADER.

NO FREE JUMPING DOWN A VENTILATION SHAFT ON THIS LEVEL, UNCLE LUKE! THIS TIME I'LL DESTROY YOU!

HE WORRIES ME ...

HE HATED IT WHEN THERE WAS ANY MESS AROUND HIM.

HE CLEANED THE CANTEEN ALL BY HIMSELF?

AT LEAST HE'S OCCUPIED. WE'RE LUCKY HE'S NOT FORCING US TO PRACTISE RAIDS ON PEACEFUL PLANETS!

YES. HE SAYS HE LIKES ORDER. AS HE PUT IT: "THE FIRST ORDER".

HE MADE HIS LIGHTSABER WITHOUT ANYONE'S HELP. BUT IT WASN'T QUITE RIGHT AT FIRST ...

HE WORE HIS FAVOURITE MASK ALL OF THE TIME AND LOVED LOOKING MYSTERIOUS.

HMM ... WHAT DID I DO WRONG?

WHY DOES HE WEAR HIS MASK ALL OF THE TIME?

IT'S A MYSTERY. BUT THE RUMOUR IS IT'S JUST STUCK AND WON'T COME OFF.

KYLO ALWAYS WANTED TO BE THE MOST IMPORTANT ONE. HE DIDN'T LIKE COMPETITION.

BUT MOST OF ALL, KYLO WAS VERY AMBITIOUS AND BELIEVED HE WAS MADE TO BE A WINNER.

KYLO! HUX! STOP FIGHTING! MAKE UP, AND BUILD YOURSELF ONE BIG BATTLE STATION!

WAAAH!!! MASTER SNOKE! I'VE GOT A SCARY MASK AND A BIG LIGHTSABER AND I COULDN'T EVEN WIN A ONE-TO-ONE BATTLE!

HUSH NOW. DON'T YOU CRY. YOU'LL DO MUCH BETTER NEXT TIME, AFTER YOU'VE FINISHED YOUR TRAINING!

FIT ORDER

SPACE BATTLE

Here are two pictures of Kylo Ren's most recent space battle. Take a closer look and find 10 differences between them. Will you be faster than Kylo? He's already found 5!

THERE'S NO WAY YOU CAN FIND ALL THE DIFFERENCES
FASTER THAN ME!
